Summer wines: the 18 best whites, rosés and champagnes

Giacomo Fenocchio Roero Arneis 2014

Italy (13%; Grape & Grain in Haywards Heath £15.99, or by the case from Armitwines)

Giacomo Fenocchio makes superb nebbiolo and, I only recently discovered, also very good arneis. This incarnation of Piemonte's white grape tastes of chalk, lemon and pink grapefruit pith, but it's also subtle and delicate, a gorgeous crisp white.
